Online Training

Leaders and volunteers, who haven't taken Youth Protection Training in the last two years need to go online and do so. We encourage this for parents as well. You do not have to be a registered Scouter or have a BSA member number. Register at www.myscouting.org

Pow Wow!

November 5 Cub Leaders Pow Wow, "Under the Big Top," 8 am-1:15 pm., BSA Office. All leaders are encouraged to attend. If you wear a "Big Top" costume, you can win a door prize. Attending is the easiest way to cover the onsite training requirement for your Cub

Leader knot. Camp sign-up for Webelo leaders from 7:30-10 am with a $50 deposit. First come, first served. We're registering as a Pack, so let Mark or Sue know if you're going. Registration ends Oct. 28.. Bring a notebook, pencil, and bag.

Cub Master Minute by Sue Palmer

Our Core Value for October is RESPONSIBILITY!

This month's activities will include teaching our Scouts that being responsible means being dependable.

As Cub Scout leaders and family adults we have a huge responsibility to the Cubs of Pack 103. So I wanted to share a little poem with you.

Yours in Scouting
Sue Palmer

That Little Cub Scout Who Follows Me

A careful Scouter I will be.
A little Cub Scout follows me.
I do not dare to go astray
For fear he'll go the self-same way.

Not once can I escape his eyes,
Whatever he sees me do, he tries.
Like me, he say's he's going to be,
That little Cub Scout who follows me.

He thinks that I am good and fine.
Believes in every word of mine.
The base in me he must not see.
That little Cub Scout who follows me.

I must remember as I go
Through summer sun and winter snow,
I am building the years to be
That little Cub Scout who follows me.
